

Our Trip to Denmark

Sunday: We all met at the station at 09:00 in the morning and then we took the ICE train to Hamburg. From there it was only a short trip on the IC to Flensburg where our host families were already waiting for us. Sunday was family day so the girls went with their families and did many cool things like horseback riding and sailing. The boys went to the hostel with Ms Graßl and Ms Paulsen and then they visited Tom's and Kirill's exchange partner. He's called Nils. They played football and had lots of food.

Monday: We all met at Grasten School in the morning. There we told our teachers what we did with our Danish families on Sunday. After the meeting the Danish students showed us their school and Grasten. It was really nice. In the afternoon we made cookies, cakes and muffins. It was a baking competition and Tom, Kirill and Nils won. We had so much fun. After that we had a bit of free time and played ball games. Then we went back to our host families.

Tuesday: We went by bus to the North Sea. Our first stop was at a church. We went inside the church. Then we went straight to the North Sea. The trip was long but totally worth it. We saw the mudflats and we were allowed to walk around with our friends. The water was very cold. Next to the beach were some shops and many students bought sweets or other things. Then we all went back to the bus and our next stop was a museum. In the museum there were beautiful dead birds. The woman told us a lot about the sea and about birds. In one room there were fish and crabs. Then we went back to the hostel and our host families.

Wednesday: We woke up at 7 o'clock and had breakfast. After that we went to school with our Danish exchange partners. There we met the rest of the German group and we all got on a bus. It took us to Danfoss Universe. There we were allowed to try out the Segways – that was so much fun. After that we split up into smaller groups and did quizzes and tried our virtual reality glasses. It was really cool. Then we were allowed to walk around the park on our own. In the park there was a large blue house and there was water running down its walls. That was amazing. After that the bus took us back to a little village. There we could go shopping. Then we went back to our host families.

Thursday: We got up at 6 o'clock and went to school. There we met the rest of the group. From there we walked for half an hour to a farming school near Grasten. We learned something about pigs, cows and farming. We put on a farm suit and went to see the pig stables. It stank in there but the piglets were really cute. After that we went to see the cows. We saw baby cows, they were so cute so we took some photos. We felt really sorry for the pigs and cows because they have to live in such a small place so we all decided to eat less meat in the future. After that they showed us the gardens. There were also some sheep. In the afternoon we went back to the hostel and our host families. We all met again in the evening at the beach and had fantastic food and played football. We also played a game called 'Brennball'. We really liked it. Before we went back we took a nice picture.

Friday: We all packed our bags because we had to go back to Berlin. The parents of our exchange partners took us to the station. It was really sad to say goodbye to all of them but luckily we'll see each other again next year. Thank you Denmark!
